

READING COMPREHENSION

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reading Comprehension

Max finds note that box and se them with

Questions
Where doe

Who are t

Who does

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reading Comprehension

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reading Comprehension

Lily
mak
and can't

Que:

Wha

Who

Wha

Tom has a big red heart made of paper. He worked on it all morning. He decides to give it to his friend, Sara, because she is always kind. When Sara sees the heart, she smiles brightly and thanks Tom.

Questions

What did Tom make for Sara?

Why does Tom decide to give the heart to Sara?

How does Sara react when she sees the heart?

Reading Comprehension

Tom has a big red heart made of paper. He worked on it all morning. He decides to give it to his friend, Sara, because she is always kind. When Sara sees the heart, she smiles brightly and thanks Tom.

Questions

What did Tom make for Sara?

Why does Tom decide to give the heart to Sara?

How does Sara react when she sees the heart?

Reading Comprehension

Lily sits at her desk with markers and stickers. She is making a special card for her mom. The card is pink and red, and Lily writes, "I love you, Mom" inside. She can't wait to give it to her mom in the morning.

Questions

What is Lily making?

Who is the card for?

What does Lily write in the card?

Reading Comprehension

Max finds a box of chocolates on his desk. There is a note that says, "From Dad, with love." Max opens the box and sees many chocolates. He decides to share them with his sister, Ella, because he loves her too.

Questions

Where does Max find the chocolates?

Who are the chocolates from?

Who does Max decide to share the chocolates with?

Reading Comprehension

Amy has a pink balloon. It is her favorite color. She brings it to school to show her friends. Her friend, Jake, says it's very pretty. Amy feels happy and decides to give Jake a balloon too.

Questions

What color is Amy's balloon?

Who thinks the balloon is pretty?

What does Amy decide to do after Jake's compliment?

Reading Comprehension

Eva and Zoe are best friends. They make friendship bracelets for Valentine's Day. Eva makes a blue one for Zoe, and Zoe makes a green one for Eva. They exchange bracelets and promise to be friends forever.

Questions

What do Eva and Zoe make?

What colors are the bracelets?

What do they promise each other?

Reading Comprehension

Ben writes a short poem for his classmates. It's about friendship and kindness. He reads it to the class, and everyone claps. His teacher is proud and puts the poem on the wall.

Questions

Who does Ben write a poem for?

What is the poem about?

What does the teacher do with the poem?

Reading Comprehension

Sofia and her mom bake cookies. They are heart-shaped and very yummy. Sofia takes them to school to share with her class. Her friends love the cookies and say thank you.

Questions

What do Sofia and her mom bake?

What shape are the cookies?

Who does Sofia share the cookies with?

Reading Comprehension

The class learns a new song. It's a song about love and caring. They practice every day. On Valentine's Day, they sing it for the whole school. Everyone cheers.

Questions

What does the class learn?

What is the song about?

Who do they sing the song for?

Reading Comprehension

Alex draws a picture. It is of him and his dog, Buddy. He colors it with bright colors. He gives the picture to his grandma because she loves Buddy too. Grandma hugs Alex.

Questions

What does Alex draw?

Who does Alex give the picture to?

How does Grandma react?

Reading Comprehension

The school has a Valentine's party. There are games, music, and dancing. Everyone brings something to share. They all have a great time and make new friends.

Questions

What event does the school have?

What activities are there at the party?

What do the students do at the party?
